EDITORIAL POLICY

The journal publishes articles, book reviews, and bibliographies which further the aims of the Society as stated in its Constitution (Article Two):

The purpose of this society is to promote the study of both the theory and the practice of rhetoric in all periods and languages and its relationships with poetics, philosophy, politics, religion, law, and other aspects of the cultural context.

Official languages of the Society are English, French, German, Italian, Latin, and Spanish.

SUBMISSION OF MANUSCRIPTS

Manuscripts submitted to Rhetorica should not be under consideration elsewhere. Because the identity of authors is concealed from evaluators of manuscripts, each manuscript should contain a separate title page containing the title of the essay and the author's name, mailing address, email address, and phone and fax numbers. The author's identity should not otherwise be revealed in the manuscript. The title should be repeated on the first page of the text. The manuscript should be accompanied by a 100-word abstract.

Manuscripts, including text, quotations, and notes, must be double-spaced throughout. Notes should appear at the end of the manuscript. Quotations of more than 100 words should be set as separate paragraphs indented from the left margin. The complete editorial guidelines which must be followed are included in the detailed style sheet, which is available from the editor—or which can be consulted on the ISHR-website: <http://ishr-web.org/aws/ISHR/pt/sp/journal> All manuscripts are to be sent electronically as a word-file and a pdf.-file to Marc van der Poel, Radboud University Nijmegen, Faculty of Arts, Dept. of Classics (GLTC), P.O. Box 9103, 6500 HD Nijmegen, The Netherlands. Email: editor.Rhetorica@gmail.com
